I smoke cigs and chill with them daily and you know that song "Dont save her she dont wanna be saved"? Its like that.

I offer them money making opportunities but they don't want. They just want a $25 tim hortons gift card so they can trade it for more crack. They wont admit that though. They say it's for food. Akhi I don't care. You wanna smoke crack thats none of my business lol matter of fact tell me the truth ill give you a hundred bucks rn for you to enjoy your night buy you some weed and alcohol too allah.
