

The way I said it made it look bad

Posted: 2025-10-12 18:12:22.169246

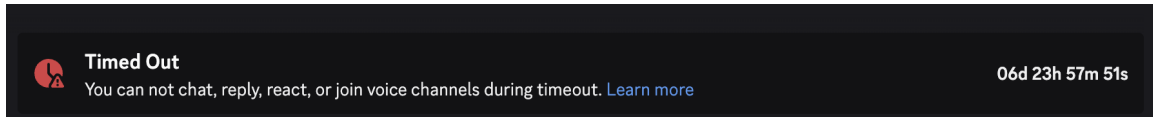

I explained to the MSA of Carleton the the Palestinians are living in a warzone with nothing to do all day but die for Allah.

"The way you said it makes it look bad"

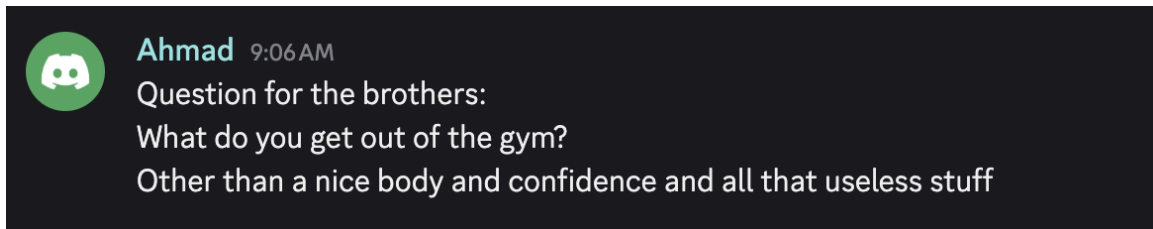

Then they dismiss me by saying new Discord account.

Then they mute me for a week.

Ahmad the moderator of MSA (ahmad.1.2.3 on Discord) sent messages making fun of and attacking people who work out "Working out is useless it only gives you a nice body theres no point" and once everyone said he doesnt have to workout he deleted his messages and everyone attacked my replies even tho I told him specifically "yes you are correct you dont have to". So he, as a mod, attacks, minimizes and dimisses other muslims then mutes, bans and deleted messages that make him look bad? How is this guy a mod?

"All that useless stuff" It is obvious he is not asking a question but attacking Is this like a dictatorship or something where we all have to deal with Ahmad and his antics?

When I say something is haram:

is gluttony haram

✦ AI Overview

Yes, gluttony is considered haram (forbidden) in Islam because it constitutes excess and harm to one's self, as evidenced by Quranic verses and prophetic sayings that advocate for moderation in eating. The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) emphasized eating only what is necessary, with a recommended balance of one-third food, one-third drink, and one-third for breathing. 🔗

Why gluttony is forbidden

- Harm to the body: Overeating can lead to health problems like obesity and other illnesses, which constitutes self-harm. 🔗
- Extravagance: Islam prohibits extravagance and excess, even with permissible 🔗

If you don't mind the advice brother, be careful what you call haram.
Not all matter is easy to make haram or halal

new discord account 🤔

What is the point of all these discussions they are having? Calm down in regards to what? Did I call something useless like Ahmad did?

Brother I have already severely escalated this muting issue and will continue to do so. Why are you targeting me specifically?

I have another meeting with student affairs this Thursday.

Hello, you informed me I should come to you with any issues I have with other students and I have one right now.

Due to personal relationship problems with a specific student named Ahmad who is the moderator of the Discord for the Muslim Student Association he abuses his power to mute me and ban me for weeks at a time for no reason.

I have asked him repeatedly to provide me with the reason for the ban but he is unwilling to provide as there is no reason.

Ahmad 2:53 PM

Insha'Allah, when come back to you, let us know what they tell you

Omar Alahmad 2:59 PM

They already did last week thats why they said to come back to them if anything new happens

They assumed you would stop

Its just weekend now so no one will reply this soon

Please also provide me with the reasons for muting and banning me

I will go to them with your response (or lack of)

Ahmad 3:31 PM

What did they say last week? Just to come back to them if anything happens or did they add to it?

Could you send the email please?

? it was an in person meeting emails about what? I just had an meeting with him and he said if I have issues to just come to him?

He wanted to meet with me and told me from now on any issues just come to him directly and I said okay.

Either way could you please send your reasoning?

I dont get your point exactly. Add what to it?

The issue is you ban and mute with no reasoning and refuse to provide a reasoning even asked.

Are you capable of providing a reason?

Ah I get it

You are wondering if they planned any punishment for you

And you are choosing to continue with your actions if there wont be even if you are in the wrong

Instead of just providing a reason for your actions which until now there are none

@Ahmad Question for the brothers: What do you get out of the gym? Other than a nice body and confidence and all that useless stuff

nafis 3:13 PM

Get a load of this guy
